

New Student Intern at the Fort Pitt Block House

The Fort Pitt Block House would like to introduce everyone to its new student intern, Molly Fuchs! Molly is a senior at Westminster College, majoring in history. She will be performing a number of different tasks including providing educational tours of the Block House to visitors as well as maintaining our Facebook page and upcoming blog on our website. Molly will be working at the Block House for the remainder of the summer season. We are very happy to have her here, and she is looking forward to telling visitors the fascinating history of the Fort Pitt Block House!

Welcome Molly!!
